Introduction

And the stars never rise, but I feel the bright eyes Of the beautiful Brainstorm;
And so, all the night-tide, I lie down by the side Of my darling—
my darling—my life and my bride, my Brainstorm, my school
In the sepulcher there by the sea, In her tomb by the sounding sea.
Oh, somewhere in this favored land, the sun is shining bright,
Far west in kigezi, in the hills of the wise, a giant valley rose like the borns of Ezekiel 37
The band is playing somewhere, and somewhere hearts are light;
And somewhere men are laughing, and somewhere children shout,
But there is joy in the Great lakes' region: Mighty Brain has struck out.

On Academic Erudition and Mentorship

This is the sanctuary where intellectual rigor meets the fire of ambition,
Where "A"s are not merely grades, but the fruits of relentless transition.
Our mentors stand as sentinels of wisdom, fortified and profound,
Beefing our intellect until scholastic excellence is all that is found.
Through the crucible of inquiry and the pursuit of profound truth,
They sculpt the boundless potential hidden within the spirit of youth.
